

Welcome to the 4th Annual Online & Hybrid Instructor Retreat

AUGUST 10, 2018

ROAD TRIP ADVENTURE AGENDA

- 8:30 - 9:00 am Welcome, Check in & Morning Refreshments
- 9:00 - 9:55 am On the PCH
Brian Weston: News & Highlights of Online & Hybrid Instruction at COC
Chloe McGinley: Online Student Survey & Faculty Resources
- 10:00 - 11:00 am Choosing the Scenic Route: Equity-minded Design is Beautiful
Fabiola Torres, Ethnic Studies Instructor, Glendale Community College
If the destination is success, the driver should promote comfort, trust and an enjoyable route. Designing online learning environments with apparent effort, care and clarity can make passengers feel safe & comfortable while making the journey worth every turn, bump & detour.
- 11:00 - 11:15 am Rest Stop Ahead
Break for Networking
- 11:15 - 11:55 am Mile Markers for Student Success
Larry Shallert: Mental Health & Wellness for Online Students
Sonny Requejo: Learn about Online Counselling
Sara Breshears: Online Library Student Resources
Alexa Johnston & Trudi Radki: Open Educational Resources
- 12:00 - 12:30 pm Exit for Lunch & Networking
- 12:30 - 12:45 pm In the Carpool Lane with OEI
Autumn Bell, Chief PD Officer, California Online Education Initiative:
The OEI Exchange, course Review process, and becoming Exchange ready
- 12:50 - 1:50 pm Shifting Gears: Exploring Course Demos and Teaching Techniques
Join your colleagues in exploring Canvas' open roads as you wind through creative tools and effective strategies for assessment, student engagement, and course design:
Julianne Johnson, History Instructor
Dustin Silva Mathematics Instructor
Ambika Silva, Mathematics Instructor
Sarah Etheridge-Criswell, Anthropology Instructor
- 1:55- 2:00 pm Home Stretch
Closing Remarks & Give-Always

