

Starting a Course Revision in eLumen

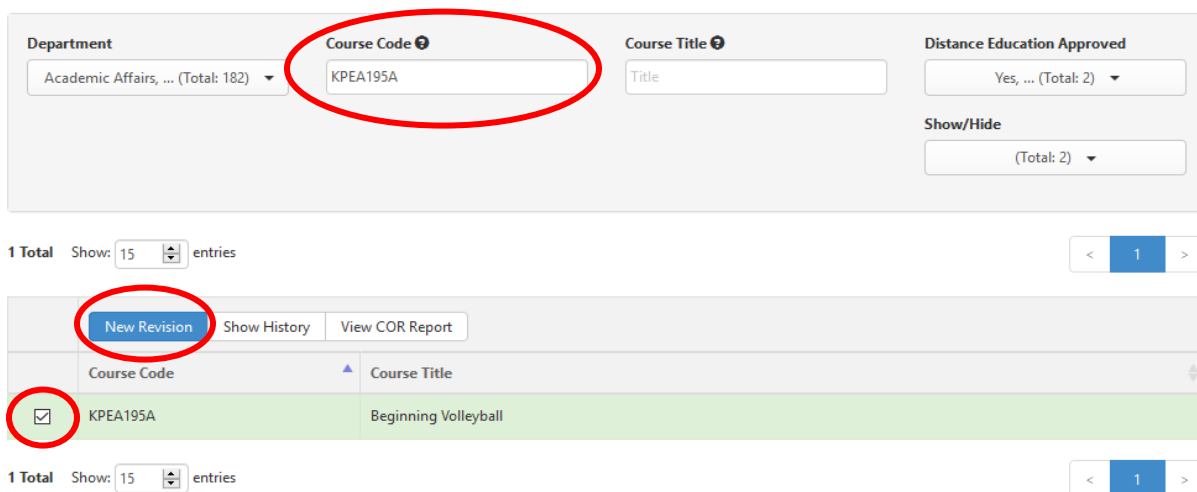

1. After logging in make sure you are in your faculty role at the top left of the screen, then if you have multiple departments you are cleared to author curriculum in select the department of the course you are revising.

2. Next navigate to the Curriculum Library screen by clicking on the main Curriculum tab, and then on the Curriculum Library link.

3. In the course code box type in the subject prefix and course number (KPEA195A in the example below) you want to revise and hit enter or click off the courses code box – no space between the subject and number and don't use any of the other options (Department, Course Title, Distance Education Approved, Show/Hide) for now. The course will populate in the menu below, click on the check box next the course and a blue "New Revision" button will appear. Click on the New Revision button and you will be on your way.

Starting a New Course Proposal in eLumen

Follow Steps 1 & 2 above and a blue “New Course” button will automatically be on the Curriculum Library screen.

The screenshot shows the eLumen Curriculum Library interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the user's name 'Lisa Hooper as Faculty' and the department 'Kinesiology-Physical Education'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with tabs for 'Courses', 'SLOs & Assessments', 'Curriculum', and 'Results Explorer'. The 'Curriculum' tab is active. Below the navigation bar, there are two tabs: 'Curriculum Dashboard' and 'Curriculum Library', with 'Curriculum Library' selected. Underneath, there are two sub-tabs: 'Course' and 'Program', with 'Course' selected. The main content area contains several filters: 'Department' (Academic Affairs, ... (Total: 182)), 'Course Code' (Code), 'Course Title' (Title), 'Distance Education Approved' (Yes, ... (Total: 2)), and 'Show/Hide' ((Total: 2)). Below the filters, there is a pagination bar showing '1310 Total' and 'Show: 15 entries'. The pagination bar includes a blue button labeled '1' and other buttons for '2', '3', '4', '5', '...', '88', and '>'. At the bottom of the interface, there is a blue button labeled 'New Course' which is circled in red, and a button labeled 'Merge Courses as Cross-Listed'.

You will get a similar intermediate pop up screen as at the top of this page after clicking on the New Course button. If you are not adding a DLA to your new course proposal, choose the “Course Creation” option. If the new course proposal will have a DLA, then choose the “Course Creation for Courses with a DLA” option.

Starting a Program Revision in eLumen

Follow the same steps as starting a course revision above, but click on the “Programs” tab after navigating to the Curriculum Library. Type in the program you want to revise in the Program Title box (Kinesiology in the example below) then hit enter or click on the Program Title box, and the Program will populate in the menu below. Click on the check box next the course and a blue “New Revision” button will appear. Click on the New Revision button and you will be on your way.

The screenshot shows the eLumen interface. At the top, the eLumen logo is circled in red. Below it, the user profile 'Lisa Hooper as Faculty' and the department 'Kinesiology-Physical Education' are also circled in red. The main content area has filters for Department (Administration of Justice, ... (Total: 59)), Program Title (Kinesiology), and Award Type (A.A. Degree, ... (Total: 12)). Below the filters, there are buttons for 'New Revision', 'Show History', and 'View POR Report'. A table below shows a row for 'Kinesiology' with a checkbox circled in red.

Program Title	Award Type
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Kinesiology	A.A. Degree for Transfer (AA-T)

You will get a pop up screen, similar to the course revision example, after clicking on the New Revision button. First click on the “Program Revision” option, then click on the “Rule-Based” option on the second part.

Starting a New Program Proposal in eLumen

Follow the same steps as above for starting a program revision, but do not type anything in the Program Title box and a blue “New Program” button will appear. Click on the “New Program” button and you will get a similar pop up screen as described above for the program revision process. First click on the “Program Creation” option, then click on the “Rule-Based” option on the second part.

Curriculum Dashboard

The curriculum dashboard is where you would go to see what stage your proposal is at. All of the proposals within the department you have selected at the top will show on this screen, not just the proposals you have authored.
