

Geography AA-T (CSU GE Track)

+If you have completed coursework at another college and/or are starting in a semester other than a Fall term, please follow up with the Counseling Department to determine if this sequence is appropriate for your academic and career goals.

Program Description: Geography is the broad spatial science that studies the location, distribution, and interaction among all physical and cultural features of Earth. These studies include physical processes that create and modify landforms, affect daily weather and long-term climates, and influence the setting for all biologic phenomena such as plants, animals and humans. These studies also include the distribution and interaction of cultural phenomena such as population, language, religion, economics, politics, diseases, agriculture, migration, resources, urban patterns, ethnic studies, and the many short-term and long-term effects of humans on the environment. The geography program also includes the study and use of graphs, maps, and geospatial digital data retrieval and cartographic technology. Through lecture, lab, and field study, the geography program provides insight, perspective, and application required to assist citizens in making well-informed decisions involving the inter-relationships between the natural physical environment and the systems and networks of human societies. The Student Transfer Achievement Reform Act \(SB 1440\)

Program SLO: Students will be able to locate and analyze the distribution of physical and cultural features in the world, relate them to modifying processes, and assess variables that influence resulting spatial patterns.

NOTE: If you follow the department recommended electives suggested below, you have the potential to earn the Certificate of Achievement in Applied GIS and Spatial Studies in addition to the AA-T Geography degree. Courses below with two asterisks () may be used to meet requirements for the AA-T degree AND the Certificate in Applied GIS and Spatial Studies.
