For this meeting, we ask that all committee members visit the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence website to have all the information needed to come to the meeting feeling prepared. If you are new to the committee, the website will provide an overview of Canyons Completes and the work that has taken place. For additional information, please reach out to Daylene Meuschke or Jasmine Ruys for one-on-one updates.

Agenda:

Meeting Theme: Strengthening Pathways Connections among Students, Faculty and Staff

The overarching goal for this meeting is to reflect on the work accomplished in fall 2021, reconnect with each other and resume the planning efforts for a campus-wide engagement event in late spring.

1. Welcome New and Returning Members (Design Team Members) (10 minutes)
2. What is our “Why”? (Daylene – 10 minutes)
 - a. Overview of (IE)² and Canyons Completes (Daylene – 5 minutes)
 - b. Review of Vision and Guiding Principles for Redesigning the Student Experience (Daylene – 5 minutes)
3. Reconnecting with Each Other – Putting on our Masks First (10 minutes discussion | 5 minutes report out)

A couple of themes that emerged from many committee meeting discussions in fall 2021 was self-care and the need to show empathy/compassion to each other. In your breakout rooms, we want to connect with each other and learn how we are practicing, or plan to practice, self-care in spring 2022 so we can be the best version of ourselves.

The mission of the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence Steering Committee is to develop and articulate the institutional approach to fostering an equity-minded, learning-centered and inclusive community for all students, faculty and staff. To fulfill its mission the Institutional Effectiveness and Inclusive Excellence Steering Committee will facilitate streamlined processes, improve communication and improve collaboration through its regular, coordination of meetings between student government, academic senate, student equity and achievement, -basic skills, non-credit, Strong Workforce, and other groups as applicable (e.g., grant funded projects).

Breakout Instructions: In your breakout rooms, please take a minute to do quick introductions (name, department and a word to describe how you are feeling today). Following introductions please identify a note taker to record highlights of the breakout room responses to the following prompt:

Breakout Room Prompt: How are you practicing, or do you plan to practice, self-care in spring 2022?
