

Emerging Latinx Leaders Series

Presented by COLLEGE OF THE CANYONS OFFICE OF DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Please join a panel of distinguished Latinx current and former COC Student Leaders. We will engage in a discussion around a 'sense of belonging'; the American/Hispanic cultures, triumphs at home and at school, the role of food and music in the Hispanic culture...and much, much more!

Thursday, October 14 • 1:00 – 2:00pm

Zoom ID: 922 647 28015 / No password required (Phone # available on request)

Or visit <https://canyonsonline.zoom.us/j/92264728015>

Additional topics will include:

- Triumphs and journeys
- Accomplishments
- Culture
- Mentorships
- Latinx Labels
- Sense of Belonging
- Importance of not giving up on dreams
- from 'first-generation student' to 'first-generation professional'

Questions?

Contact Flavio Medina-Martin, Interim Director, Recruitment and Employee Services at flavio.medina-martin@canyons.edu.

Flex credit offered

Faculty - Please encourage your students to attend. You are welcome to offer extra credit and we will be happy to provide an attendance roster for your records.

